

to the fcc: you people are like the terrorists, if something works you need to destroy it.... you and all your damn constituents ought to be brought up on charges of terrorism. why don't you the fcc and all you senators and congressmen that you both pay each other under the table and tax the hell out of u.s. citizens pack your crap up and go to iraq or afganistan..... maybe those people would appreciate you. like sadamm and osb you can all crawl in the sack together and hopfully kill each other off with aids.....

when someone has something that works and benefits all america you idiots ought to stand up and take notice.... is it because your not included in the payroll or what..???? too much ass kissing
